Description of Employment

Grade:

Any including honorary, substantive or fixed term consultant in the NHS. Confirmation of a doctor's eligibility to work in general practice. Doctor's must have confirmation of their eligibility to work in general practice. This confirmation must be: i. a CCT or Article 11 certificate awarded by PMETB from September 2005; or ii. a certificate awarded by the JCPTGP before 30 September 2005. The Certification Unit at the RCGP will be able to confirm these awards if necessary; iii. confirmation by the GMC in the case of an EEA doctor. In addition, some GPs are eligible to work in general practice by virtue of being a principal in NHS general practice on or after 15 February 1981. They should have a certificate of acquired rights issued by PMETB (or the JCPTGP prior to 30 September 2005) or a certificate of exemption issued by their Health Authority at the time.
